What are the guidelines for share repurchases?

Shareholders who would like to liquidate shares of the Nuveen Enhanced High Yield Municipal Bond Fund and Nuveen Enhanced CLO Income Fund may participate in the funds’ share repurchases on a quarterly basis. As a repurchase period opens, the funds provide shareholders with information about the timing and details of the repurchase offer.

What happens if you miss the repurchase request deadline?

The repurchase request deadline must be met. If a common shareholder does not submit a repurchase request in good order by the repurchase request deadline, the shareholder will not be able to liquidate common shares until a subsequent repurchase offer, and will need to resubmit a request in the next repurchase offer. Shareholders may withdraw or change a repurchase request with a proper instruction submitted in good form at any point before the repurchase request deadline.

When are repurchase payments made for common shares?

The funds expect to distribute payment to common shareholders between one and three business days after the repurchase pricing date, and no later than seven calendar days after the pricing date.

Are any fees associated with repurchases?

The funds do not currently expect to charge a repurchase fee. However, the funds may charge a repurchase fee of up to 2.00% of the repurchase proceeds. The funds may introduce or modify the amount of a repurchase fee at any time. The funds may also waive or reduce the repurchase fee. In some cases, fees may be imposed by a financial intermediary on different terms than those described above.

Important information on risk

Investing in interval funds involves risk; principal loss is possible. There is no guarantee the Fund’s investment objectives will be achieved. Debt or fixed income securities such as those held by the Fund, are subject to market risk, credit risk, interest rate risk, call risk, tax risk, political and economic risk, and income risk. As interest rates rise, bond prices fall. Credit risk refers to an issuers ability to make interest and principal payments when due.

An interval fund is a non-diversified, closed-end management investment company that continuously offers its common shares. An interval fund is not intended to be a complete investment program and, due to the uncertainty inherent in all investments, there can be no assurance that the fund will achieve its investment objectives. An interval fund’s performance and the value of its investments will vary in response to changes in interest rates, inflation, the financial condition of a security’s issuer, ratings on a security, perceptions of the issuer, and other market factors. Common shares at any point in time may be worth less than your original investment, even after taking into account the reinvestment of fund dividends and distributions. These and other risk considerations are described in more detail on the Fund’s web page at www.nuveen.com/en-us/interval-funds
