Understanding State Tax Deductions

What you need to know about 529 tax benefits

Scholars Choice
EDUCATION SAVINGS PLAN BY COLLEGEINVEST®

529 Tax Benefits by State

Colorado is the home state of the Scholars Choice Education Savings Plan®. Colorado state taxpayers enjoy an annual state income tax deduction to the extent of the contributor's Colorado taxable income for that year for contributions to a Colorado 529 plan.

■ States with tax considerations

These states offer state income tax deductions if certain criteria are met. Please see the list of states and details on state income tax deductibility.

■ Tax parity states

These states offer residents a state income tax deduction for contributions made to any other state's 529 plan: Arizona, Arkansas¹, Kansas, Maine, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Ohio and Pennsylvania.

■ Tax neutral states

These states offer no state income tax deduction for contributions: Alaska, California, Florida, Hawaii, Kentucky, Nevada, New Hampshire, North Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Washington and Wyoming.

Restrictions and limitations apply. Please seek guidance from a tax or financial professional.

Important information CT, CO, DC, GA, IN, KS, MI, MO, PA, RI: "Rollover in" (from another qualified 529 program) is not deductible. IL, VT, WI: Only principal portion of "rollover in" is deductible. AL: Qualified withdrawals from non-AL plans are not excluded from AL state tax. AR, CO, IL, KS, LA, ME, ND, NJ, NV, PA, RI, TN, WV: Other monetary incentives exist, including grants. Review Plan Description for more details.

I = Filing Individually/Single Filers, J = Filing Jointly

¹ Note: While Arkansas is not a so-called "Tax Parity" state, to the extent a full state tax deduction cannot be taken for contributions to a non-Arkansas sponsored 529 Plan, Arkansas taxpayers can still take a partial deduction for a contribution to the Scholars Choice 529 Plan. Speak with your financial professional for details.

² In-state tax deduction may be subject to recapture on nonqualified withdrawals and/or outbound rollovers in subsequent years.

³ Carry forward – Some states allow taxpayers who contribute above the annual in-state tax deduction limit to apply the contribution to future state income tax returns. This allows the taxpayer to derive the full benefit of the in-state tax deduction in subsequent years.

⁴ Contributions deductible only if made by the account owner.

⁵ Only contributions made by the account owner, the account owner's spouse, or the account owner's custodian/parent are deductible.

⁶ The amount the taxpayer must contribute to get the full credit varies based on the taxpayer's income.

⁷ Contributions by a non-account owner are creditable by the account owner.

⁸ Contributions by a non-account owner are deductible by the account owner.
