Complainants may file their complaint in the official language(s) of their country of residence.

The complaint shall be supported by a statement of the reasons on which it is based together with, inter alia, the following documents:

- A detailed and chronological statement of the facts underlying the complaint and the steps already taken by the applicant;
- In the case where a person acts on behalf of an applicant or on behalf of a legal person, a document showing that the person is legally entitled to act as such;
- A copy of a valid ID document of the applicant (natural person) or, where the applicant is a legal person, of the natural person representing this legal person

The written acknowledgement of receipt will be provided to the complainant within a period which shall not exceed 10 business days after receipt of the complaint, unless the answer itself is provided to the complainant within this period.

On a receipt of a Complaint, Nuveen will:

- Investigate the complaint competently, diligently and impartially, obtaining additional information as necessary;
- Assess fairly, consistently and promptly the subject matter of the complaint;
- Assess whether the complaint should be upheld
- Determine what remedial action or redress (or both) may be appropriate; and if appropriate, whether Nuveen has reasonable grounds to be satisfied that another respondent may be solely or jointly responsible for the matter alleged in the complaint; and
- Comply promptly with any offer of remedial action or redress accepted by the complainant

Nuveen is entrusted with the management of all complaints to ensure a thorough examination of the issues involved. Nuveen will handle all complaints with the utmost diligence, transparency and objectivity and will communicate its decision to the complainant in writing within one month of receipt of the complaint by registered mail with return receipt. All relevant data is logged in the Complaint Register.

In accordance with article 15(2) of the CSSF regulation 16-07, where the complainant did not obtain an answer or a satisfactory answer at the level at which s/he submitted his/her complaint in the first instance, the complainant has the opportunity to rise the complaint up to the senior management:
